take 04 Hours. Arrive at Paris. Check-in into the Hotel. See the beauty of the city as it is at night, each street and monument is lit with the orange glow of the streetlights and the city takes on a very different, much more romantic feel. You will be able to see plenty of the famous sites in Paris from your vantage point, including the Arc de Triomphe and the Louvre Museum, home to some of the world's most famous pieces of artwork. Relax as you take a serene cruise down the Seine. The cruise also comes with an audio guide to the numerous monuments which line the river. You will be able to learn more about such points of interest as the Louvre Museum, the famous Orsay Museum, the grand cathedral of Notre Dame and, of course, the world famous Eiffel Tower! This gives you the chance to see Paris's monuments from a much more relaxing perspective. Immerse yourself in the magic of Paris with a night panoramic bus tour of the city! Take a journey into the history of the city with individual audio guides which will take you through the heritage of Paris's most famous monuments. Marvel at the stunning beauty of the Louvre Museum lit up at night with an enchanting glow. See the mighty Arc de Triomphe, which overlooks the Champs-Élysées, illuminated by spotlight via the Place de la Concorde. Overnight shall be in Paris.

Day 09: Louvre Museum Guided Tour, Eiffel Tower Lunch and Guided visit of Notre-Dame Area

After Breakfast, we discover one of the largest and most visited museums in the world. Formerly a royal residence, the Louvre first housed the collections of the French monarchy and currently to date has approximately 300,000 works of art. Stroll through its spacious halls and corridors accompanied by a professional guide and contemplate the true masterpieces, from as the Venus de Milo to the Mona Lisa. Then it's all aboard the river shuttle to watch the city go by as you drift gracefully down the Seine to the next stop. See the many lovers, dog walkers and booksellers lining the busy banks and quays. Enjoy the taste of Parisian cuisine with a light lunch on the Eiffel Tower Terrace and admire the incredible engineering of this iconic building, constructed in 1889 as the entrance arch to the World's Fair. It's still the tallest structure in Paris, and more people visit here than any other paid monument worldwide. Gaze out over the crisp lawns of the Champs de Mars and the tiny streets below before hopping back on the boat. Finally, enjoy a guided tour of Notre-Dame Square, pinnacle of French Gothic architecture and tragic location for Victor Hugo's much-loved novel, The Hunchback of Notre Dame.

Day 10: Tour of Versailles.

After Breakfast, Spend a day surrounded by the most splendid luxury French history has bequeathed: the priceless treasure of the Palace of Versailles. With this full day tour, you have an unparalleled opportunity to explore every last corner of this magnificent sprawling construction. Most definitely, an experience you will not be soon to forget. What better way can there be for discovering the Palace of Versailles that doing it at your own pace? This is the ideal alternative to having to stop to hear the explanations of parts of the palace you are not interested in. Take the tour's reins into your own hands and explore the palace on your own with an audioguide commentary. This way you can wander the hallways free as a bird and hear the interesting narratives behind whichever corner of Versailles interests you most. The Palace of Versailles is filled with awe-inspiring rooms, crammed with what at the time was - and, dare we say even now is -the height of luxury. Meander through the dazzling Hall of Mirrors and lose yourself in the ample spaces of the King and Queen's Apartments. Once you have explored the building to your heart's content, you can spend the rest of the day strolling around the castle or along the immense gardens of Versailles. Another equally tantalising option is to pop down to investigate the city. Be your own tour architect and make your day your own. Overnight shall be in Paris.

Day 11: Paris to Amsterdam.

After Breakfast, we proceed to the Railway Station of Paris. We are onboard the train to Amsterdam. The train journey usually takes around 3 Hours time for the travel. Check-in into the Hotel at Amsterdam. Later, we embark on an unforgettable night with an experience that will delight even the most demanding palates. Board a comfortable glass boat and enjoy a relaxed cruise through the heart of Amsterdam along the picturesque canals while enjoying a carefully prepared four-course dinner. This two-hour cruise will take you by the most beautiful and romantic places of the capital at nightfall, when the main attractions of the city are illuminated and the atmosphere comes to life. Overnight in Amsterdam

Day 12: Amsterdam Tour and Guided Cruise

After Breakfast, This city tour takes you past the high lights of Amsterdam. With its 6,800 protected houses and monuments, Amsterdam has the largest historic city centre in Europe. The city is well-known for its ring of canals, along which thousands of decorated merchants' residences and warehouses were built in the 17th century, the Dutch Golden Age. But, besides the canals. Amsterdam has countless interesting and remarkable sights and amazing views outside the historic city centre. Find out for yourself on a comfortable bus that will take you along the river and through the beautiful streets, towers and bridges. The tour includes a picture stop at a beautiful windmill and a visit to a diamond factory and witness its impressive collection of jewels. A visit to the Canal District should be on everyone's bucket-list of things to do whilst in Amsterdam. On the one-hour canal cruise, you will be able to feast your eyes on the elegant merchants' houses dating from the Golden Age, the fabulous gables, beautiful churches, the iconic Magere Brug (Skinny Bridge) and so much more. Overnight in Amsterdam

Day 13: Tour of Volendam, Marken and Windmills, Delft, The Hague and Madurodam

After Breakfast, we shall have a big day today. We leave the heart of Amsterdam and discover a different side of Holland. Have some fun as you travel with your experienced tour guide as you ride northward to the old-fashioned villages of Volendam and Zaanse Schans. Say cheese and pose for pictures with a quaint wooden shoe maker. Be amazed at the 18th-century still-functioning windmill whilst you sample local cheeses at a delicious tasting. Cruise across IJsselmeer Lake to the village of Marken and see their picturesque wooden homes, before continuing to the fabled city of Delft where you will visit one of the original Delftware factories. Why not bring home a classic Dutch souvenir for your loved ones with a piece of white and blue patterned pottery?

Visit The Hague; home to Binnenhof, Madurodam, and the Noordeinde Palace. Explore Binnenhof, one of the world's oldest active House of Parliament and even get some photos at King Willem-Alexander's working palace. Feel like a giant in Madurodam, the renowned miniature theme park, and an incredible tourist destination. You will find a 1:25 scaled down representations of the charming countryside, villages, and various historic buildings of the Netherlands. Canal Cruise

Enhance your memories of Amsterdam as you enjoy a relaxing 1-hour cruise along the famous canals. No trip to the Netherlands is complete without an excursion to the world-famous waters of the Amsterdam canals. Renowned as a UNESCO World Heritage site, the canal district will have you amazed as you cruise through its canals. Lean back and examine the town from another point of view as you drift along the beautiful waters and admire the treasured architecture.

Later proceed to the Hotel. Overnight in Amsterdam.
